WANTED: SRE CO-ORDINATOR

Iris is retiring from this position to attend university full-time (the plan is to teach secondary school mathematics).

The role of SRE Co-ordinator is crucial to the smooth running of Protestant Scripture at our 3 local primary schools. It demands a high dependency on prayer, as only the Lord can raise up sufficient numbers of scripture teachers to cover all the classes.

What's involved:

- ✓ Encouraging teachers.
- ✓ Ordering teaching materials each semester (January and June).
- ✓ Organising meetings to allocate teachers to classes.
- ✓ Liaising with the school's SRE co-ordinators to determine numbers of classes and students, which classrooms are allocated to each class, start dates each term and what interruptions to our program we can expect due to sports carnivals, year camps etc.
- ✓ Arranging the combined SRE assemblies held at Easter and Christmas.
- ✓ Arranging Training sessions, especially Safe Ministry, ensuring each teacher is adequately equipped to teach.
- ✓ Where possible, taking a class when a teacher is away.

Scripture is scheduled Wednesday mornings during school terms, 9am at Asquith PS, 10am at Mt Kuring-gai and 11.30am and 12noon at Mt Colah PS. Each class is for approx. 30 mins.

As you will be in contact with, and probably teaching, children you will need to have completed (or undergo) the Safe Ministry training program.

Iris is available for on-the-job assistance where required, so please don't be intimidated by the list!

If you think God is encouraging you to fill this ministry, please talk to Brian Heath.

Persons prohibited under the NSW Child Protection Act 1998 may not apply for this position.
